BEHAVIORAL STANDARDS

As part of a community effort the Butterfield Park District is proud to be a part of the Character Counts program. Through this program we will promote the Six Pillars of Character: Trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. This will be the basis of appropriate behaviors at K5 Day Camp.

Initials: APPROPRIATE BEHAVIORS - Definitions on back, please read with your child before initialing.

Parents	Child
_____	_____	(1) Trustworthiness
_____	_____	(2) Respect
_____	_____	(3) Responsibility
_____	_____	(4) Fairness
_____	_____	(5) Caring
_____	_____	(6) Citizenship

FIRST WARNING

The first time a child does not follow our behaviors associated with the Six Pillars of Character; the parent will be notified by phone, in person or by written letter if parent cannot be reached. At the time of the incident, both the child and the lead counselor will discuss and put together a positive behavior management plan and document it.

SECOND WARNING

If a child continues not to follow our behaviors associated with the Six Pillars of Character after a first warning has been given, the child will then receive a written second warning. This warning will state the behavior of the child and notify the parent(s) that one more incident of such behavior could lead to possible removal from the program. We will also ask that the parent(s) look at the positive behavioral management plan. Both the warning and the behavioral management plan must be signed by a parent and returned. One copy will remain at the site, with the staff, and the parents will retain another.

THIRD (FINAL) WARNING

After a first and second warning has been issued and the child continues not to follow our behaviors associated with the Six Pillars of Character the parent will be contacted by phone and given a written notice that the child must be removed from the program for a certain period of time or permanently, depending on the severity of the behavior.

I have read, understand, and accept the above Behavioral Standards and procedures.

Six Pillars of Character

TRUSTWORTHINESS. Trustworthiness is being honest, telling the truth, keeping promises and being loyal so people can trust you. Trustworthy people don't lie, cheat, or steal. They have integrity and the moral courage to do the right thing and stand up for their beliefs even when it is hard to do so.

RESPECT. Respect is showing others that they are valued for who they are, for their character, not what they look like or what they have. It means treating others the way you want to be treated, never insulting or making fun of others who are different in looks, ability, race, or religion. A respectful person is polite, does not use bad language and never uses violence.

RESPONSIBILITY. Responsibility is doing what you are supposed to do. Responsible people think ahead, set reasonable goals, control their tempers and always do their best. They don't give up easily, especially when others are counting on them. They are accountable for the consequences of their choices; they do not blame others for their mistakes.

FAIRNESS. Fairness is playing by the rules, taking turns, sharing, and listening. Fair people do not take advantage of others, consider all sides before they decide and don't blame others unjustly.

CARING. Caring is being kind, helpful, and generous to everyone. Caring people are not selfish; they are considerate and always think about how their conduct affects others. They have compassion and empathy; they care how others feel and they are charitable and forgiving. They do good deeds without thought of reward.

CITIZENSHIP. Citizenship is doing your share to help your family and make your community a better place. Good citizens are good neighbors. They cooperate with others, obey laws and rules, respect the authority of parents, counselors, and others, and they protect the environment.
